MEMORANDUM FOR: The Secretary of State

SUBJECT: USIA Berlin Program

The following proposals were put forth at the Berlin Steering Committee meeting. It was agreed that you would take them up with Ed Murrow in Paris.

1. A worldwide rally of free men would be organized in Berlin, scheduled for September 30, the anniversary of the end of the air lift. This is the only significant date coming up in the immediate future upon which to peg such an event. The rally would be staged along the general theme that "the freedom of all men is at stake in Berlin". Democratic leaders from around the world would be invited. The invitations would come either from a non-governmental "Freedom Committee" in Berlin, the West Berlin government, or the West German government. The United States would not have an obvious hand in the invitations or in the transportation of the leaders. We, of course, would send a distinguished delegation, perhaps headed by former President Harry S. Truman.

2. September 30 would be labelled Berlin Freedom Day around the world and speeches, meetings, and rallies would be held to coincide with the principal rally in Berlin.

3. Prominent Berliners and some recent, carefully-chosen, refugees from East Germany would be sent to key countries of the world at the same time. They would be principal speakers and guests at Berlin Freedom Day rallies.

4. The Attorney General suggested the formation of a private group of approximately fifty Americans to rally worldwide support in Berlin. The group would consist of leaders in education, business,
